DAILY RACING FORM.

GOOD RACING IN THE MUD.

A splendid card of six races was offered at Ideal Park yesterday, and a Saturday crowd of about 3,000 was out. The air was damp and the going heavy, yet the sport was far above the average. A three-quarter handicap and a mile and a half selling race were the feature. Simmons captured the handicap by a short head from Dorah Wood after the hardest kind of a struggle through the stretch.

The long distance race furnished a good contest all the way. At the end Judge Denny won rather handily. Sunburst, the favorite, could not run fast enough to keep warm. He is an inconsistent performer right now.

Provident took the seven furlong two-year-old race, Umbrella the mile allowance event, and Lollie Eastin disposed of a good field of sprinters in the last.
